FUTURE WITHOUT FRONTIERS

Company

Jump! leads the world in assisting international students find the right overseas study option for them. We are experts providing our students with an abundance of program options world-wide. They may wish to study and live abroad on a semester or year program, study languages, complete an internship to strengthen their resume, attend a short term program during one of your academic break periods, complete a research project at an overseas campus, an entire degree or postgraduate. Students are our work, our passion, our responsibility, and our obligation. We are a trusted partner in international education because of how we do our work each and every day.

We choose the right international partners who have excellent academic reputations, good student services, and a track record of supporting study abroad students. Our partners have excellent work sites, teaching programs, research interests, and overall quality of experience mentality.

Whether it is counselling support to make the right choice of international education destination, providing accurate information, smoothing out the application process or managing visa applications, international students really are better placed with Jump!.

Mission

Jump! key mission is the development of quality educational study abroad programs for diverse student needs and the facilitation of students into the programs with utmost care and concern for student services including health and safety, adequate housing and on-site support and cultural experiences to complement the academic core of the program. We help our students to find a program in any academic major within our suite of program sites.

Our goal is to ensure the complete satisfaction and happiness of every student. We understand when our students are looking for studying options, are looking for a better future. Jump! contributes to intellectual, professional and economic development of societies, through one of the most important human needs, education.

Vision

Internet is the most important information source for many facing an important decision. Jump! developed a website, integrated with blog, social networks, ecommerce platforms and a complete education directory. Our company now is providing our students with high quality, value-added service, through internet. Our clients save time and money by using our online service, from the comfort of their homes and offices.

At future now Jump!, we provide to our partners the unprecedented possibility to grow into new markets and increase their sales and branding.

Study Programs

No matter the direction our students take, we are the International Educational Organization to help them achieve their goals. As their compass and guide, we will help them select, prepare and launch the right experience giving them the tools they need and helping them make this the most amazing journey of their life.
